Don't let the name fool you! This bit speaks volumes loud and clear to horse owners across the board. The elite use the Whisper Bit - NRHA $2 Million Rider Tim McQuay, Reining Champions Jared Leclair & Dan Huss, Cutting Champion Boyd Rice, and Barrel Racing Champion Charmayne James. Regardless of the discipline, the Whisper Bit communicates clearly to the horse and allows guidance and correction without intimidation. It's forgiving and not threatening to horses - even when nerves and adrenaline can make hands move a little too fast.

Cold hard metal will be merely an aftertaste in your horse's mouth. In its place is the refreshing feel of a patented plastic formula specially developed for the Whisper Bit.

...you really don't have to shout.

"I like to use the Whisper Bit on horses that are sensitive and a little fractious. It seems to give them confidence because they don't get scared by the hard metal, but what a lot of people don't realize is that this bit does have enough purchase so that they don't get heavy."

"I found the Whisper Bit to be good for a horse that is tough in the face. It's not as threatening to them so that helps them accept you pulling on the reins. It's a great tool when you get to a sticky spot in your training program. Also, the Whisper Bit is very good for those horses with a problem because it helps teach them not to be so intimidated."

Tracy Fenney wins the $50K Fleur De-Lis Grand Prix using the Whisper Bit!

In the Hunter and Jumper world there is a large group of bits to choose from, especially for showing jumpers. But the slightest difference in how the horse holds the mouthpiece can make a huge change in the results. For this reason, Whisper Bits offer another opportunity to find what works best for you and your horse. The Whisper Bit is similar to the well-known Happy Mouth bit - but the Whisper Bit provides a slightly more abrupt result while still keeping the horse very comfortable.

The Whisper Bit is also a great choice for a rider's hands that might be a little quick.

The Whisper D Ring Snaffle is already winning in the hunter and equitation rings.

Now the jumper riders are discovering the advantages of using the Whisper Gag.
